5. No motions were made under Old Business.
6. New Business:
- a) Chairperson Lobo requested that a policy be put in place when reviewing applications, that any incomplete applications, unsigned applications or applications stating particular experience with no supporting information be disqualified from review by the Commission. Executive Secretary Kelley and the Commissioners all agreed this is a practice that will be implemented.
  - b) Director Cesare requested that the testing process for Public Works positions be discussed. Director Cesare suggested that the Truck Mechanic applicants be given a written and oral examination. Director Cesare suggested that the Maintainer applicants be given an agility test and an oral examination possibly on a Saturday or in the evening. Executive Secretary Kelley and the Commission agreed that this testing procedure will be arranged.
